Student's Corner

As I read the words
My heart was tearing apart
All I see was the sky
In the merely darkness.
Seems there was a light I need to find
Searching for the point
As I reached for the Arts
All I see were the broken pieces
Which contained love
Which had broken into thin pieces
And are losing all the shine
And the light disappeared
Reaching for the had
Which was merely sand
There is nothing I can hold off
As it was the truth.....
Me myself contained in my thoughts.....
I gnung such beautiful people
In front of me with such good hearts
I see there the light shines
And the light is bright
As I follow the light
It seems,
I have come home.....

I Pierce for the land

I am what was once a brave knight's joist,
The brave knight who used to charge in the ear of Joust;
His last charge was delivered straight at death's heart;
As he launched me at the speeds of a heaven descending dart;
And at last he scarified himself for his people.

Then the Burgrane kept me sae for ages.
As I was visited and stigmatised by the monks and the sages;
Until came the time of Frederick the great;
As now I would decide Austrians fate;
The Battle was own and the king was famed
And I was once more gloriously framed;
At last came the time of my most ruthless dictator,
For anyone who didn't love him was a firm hater;
This time I was only shown to prove to the public their leader's might;
Black swastiks as for as you could notice the troublesome sight
And as the great war waged once ago I was no longer in use!
As I now am preserved for the veicus.
